

SOCIAL EVENTS

Surprised On Birthday.
Miss Emma Sanderson, 4315 Eighth avenue, was surprised Monday evening by a company of 35 friends, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The evening was devoted to games and music, and a basket lunch brought by the guests was disposed of. Among the gifts presented to Miss Sanderson were a pedestal and a flower basket.

Classes Plan Activities.
The Baraca and Philathea classes of the First Baptist church met in joint session last evening at the church parlors, participating in a devotional service conducted by Rev. J. C. Oranger. Several letters were read from soldier boys now in France and from Miss Gertrude Wagner, a Red Cross nurse in an eastern hospital.

Upon the classes going into separate sessions the Baraca class received reports for the last month and made plans for a service to be held Sunday evening when another blue star will be replaced with a gold one in memory of Ernest Mueller, who was killed in action. This will be the second star in the honor flag in the church.

The Philathea class received two new members: Miss Mabel Blizet and Mrs. J. Cordell. Reports were submitted and complete plans were made for an evening coffee to be held Feb. 7 at the home of Miss Bessie Riess, 1806 1/2 Second avenue, when there will be a program, a social hour and lunch and the young women are expected to bring their fancy work.

Upon the reconvening of the classes games of various kinds were played and there were light refreshments to close a pleasant evening.

Servants With Miss Kerns.
Serving with Miss Jane Kerns Monday evening in the home of her sister, Mrs. O. E. Mansur, in Moline, and there was a very fair attendance. Miss Grace Putnam was in charge of the meeting and she handled a very interesting topic, Old Anglo-Saxon Poetry, beautifully giving an outline of the old English legend, Beowulf, and reading from the translations. Decision on the next meeting place was not made. Miss Kerns and her sister served refreshments before adjournment.

Monday Study Club.
Members of the Monday Study club were guests Monday afternoon of Mrs. F. H. First, who entertained in her home, 1215 Twentieth street, at the fortnightly session. Mrs. Richards was the leader of the afternoon and the subject taken up was "Peace and League of Nations." Papers during the hour of study were given by Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Allan Welch, with the usual informal discussion following. The place of next meeting in two weeks will be announced.

Broadway C. E. in Session.
The January social and business meeting of the Christian Endeavor society of Broadway Presbyterian church was held last evening. Miss Elizabeth Olmsted, 612 Thirtieth street, acting as the hostess. A goodly number of the young people were in attendance and spent a delightful time together. An informal program was given. Miss Rachel Stewart entertaining with vocal numbers and Miss Pansy Blakemore with piano selections. Refreshments were served at the close of a brief business session.

Party to Welcome Home.
When Earl Dierolf returned home last night, having been mustered out of service at Camp Grant after months of service overseas, he was greeted by a company of 30 friends who had gathered at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dierolf, 2725 Ninth street, to give him a rousing welcome. The house was gay with flags and other decorations and the evening was indeed a happy one. Mr. Dierolf was a member of the Three Hundred Thirty-third field artillery of the Eighty-sixth division and saw months of service in France.

Mrs. Gauley Three G Hostess.
Mrs. William Gauley was hostess to the Three G club, entertaining yesterday afternoon in her home, 630 Fortieth street, all the members attending and spending a delightful time over their fancy work. A dainty lunch was served in the course of the afternoon. The ladies were invited to be the guests of Mrs. W. E. Hill, Eighteenth street and Twelfth avenue, Moline, Feb. 18.

W. C. T. U. Discusses Missions.
A well attended meeting of the central branch of the Woman's Christian Temperance union was held yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the W. C. A. Miss Alwilda Young acting as the leader of the afternoon. She conducted a quiz on the general subject under discussion, "The Relation of Temperance to Missions." Interesting papers were given by Mrs. W. O. Litten on "The Relation of the Temperance to the W. C. T. U.," by Mrs. John Titterton on "World-Wide Cooperation of Missions and Temperance," and Mrs. A. C. Larrison on "Temperance and Missions."

The society has adopted a French orphan and at the conclusion of the session yesterday collected funds to pay for the support of the child. The readings were interspersed with musical numbers and the afternoon proved profitable and enjoyable.

Circle Plans Recital.
At a meeting of the Colonel Brackett circle, ladies of the G. A. R., held yesterday in Memorial hall in the court house, final plans were made for a recital to be held Jan. 29, 30 at Masonic temple. This is to be given by Edwin Swain, harpist; Philip Szata, harpist; and Josef Markin, pianist, and the concert will be evening performance. The recital was originally booked for Dec. 11 and 12, but was postponed at that time because of the flu epidemic. Colonel Brackett circle each year for some time has sponsored a high class musical entertainment as a means of raising money with which to defray expenses of the order's sacred charity work, and this recital promises to be up to the standard previously set.

The next meeting of the circle will be a social one on the afternoon of Feb. 4 at Memorial hall.

Party on Birthday.
A company of 36 friends carried out a pleasant surprise on Mrs. Fred Kolis, 1229 Second avenue, yesterday when they called at her home to help her celebrate her 52nd birthday anniversary. The afternoon and evening were spent in the enjoyment of music and in playing cards. Mrs. Kolis was left with many pretty gifts.

Burke-Brinn.
Miss Hannah Brinn and William J. Burke of Minneapolis were united in marriage at the Sacred Heart Catholic church last evening. Rev. C. P. O'Neill officiating at the service. Miss Agnes Collins, niece of the bride, and Maurice Corke, nephew of the bride, attended the couple as bridesmaid and groomsmen respectively. Mr. Burke has been employed as a boiler erector for the Wilcox-Babcock company. The couple will reside at 2115 Ninth avenue.

Brotherhood to Aid Soldiers.
At a meeting of the Brotherhood bible class of the First Baptist church, held last evening in the classroom at the church, it was decided to circulate a petition for the benefit of the soldiers, asking that they receive six months' pay. It was also decided to start an aggressive membership campaign.

Y. M. H. A. Plans Dance.
At a meeting of the Y. M. H. A. held last evening at their club rooms, a report was received on the sale of tickets for the dance to be held tonight at Odd Fellows' hall. The affair promises to be a largely attended one, as the organization has invited all its friends to attend.

Beerli-Wickham.
Rev. L. Hadaway, pastor of Memorial Christian church, last evening officiated at the marriage of Miss Minnie Wickham and Ernest Beerli of Charleston, Ill., the ceremony taking place at the parsonage, 729 Twenty-second street. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Harris of this city.

Prepare to Give Playlet.
The Brown's business college community service league of Moline is preparing to present a playlet "The Worst Man" by John Kendrick Banks, on the evening of Jan. 30 in Recreation hall, Moline. The play is being rehearsed under the direction of Mrs. Churchill and the musical score study is being directed by Thomas D. Ratcliffe of the war camp community service. The proceeds are to be used in the purchase of equipment for club rooms to be established.

Willing Workers Entertained.
Mrs. Carrie Hotchkiss in her home, 3102 Ninth avenue, was hostess last evening to the members of the "Willing Workers" class of the South Park Presbyterian church. Mrs. C. W. Hawes conducted the devotional services and readings from the mission book on Africa were given by various members of the class. Victrola music was furnished as entertainment and the hostess served light refreshments.

Miss Eva Revell.
Members of the Miss Eva Revell club were guests yesterday afternoon of Mrs. Augusta Hortsman, on Seventeenth avenue, Moline, the women spending a very delightful afternoon together over their crocheting and other fancy work. Lunch was served at 4 o'clock and the club was invited to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Adolph Effland, 702 Railroad avenue, Moline.

Adolph Levin C. E. Head.
Adolph Levin was chosen president of the Christian Endeavor society of the Fifteenth Avenue Christian church last evening at the annual meeting held in the home of Miss Ruth Carlson, 1531 Thirty-second street. Other officers selected are: Vice president—Uri Metcalf. Secretary—Mrs. Don Porter. Treasurer—Miss Grace Smith. Corresponding secretary—Miss Lone Robinson.

Installation of officers will be held Sunday night at the church. A delightful hour of sociability was enjoyed at the close of the business session and the hostess served light refreshments.

Harriet Henderson Class.
A large number of the members of the Harriet Henderson Memorial class of the First Methodist church were guests last evening at the monthly meeting held in the home of Mrs. E. A. Sheldon, 2523 Twentieth avenue. After the short business session there was a reading and contests worked around the names of the ex-presidents. A feature of the evening was the exchange of "white elephants," each member bringing some package which has become a white elephant on its hands, and the opening of these packages created considerable merriment. Refreshments were served by Company C, under the direction of Mrs. William Dickman.

Farwell Courtesy for Visitor.
Miss Eva Revell was the honoree at a farewell party given last evening at the home of Miss Margaret Cook, 529 Thirtieth avenue. A company of young women gathered at the home of Miss Cook at 6 o'clock, taking the guest of honor much by surprise. At 6:30 a delicious course dinner was served and this was followed by a jolly evening of songs, games and dancing, winners in the contests being Miss Revell, and Miss Alberta Barnes. Guests of the evening were Misses Alberta Barnes, Mildred Wessel, Dorothy Doose, Arlene Luckenbuhl, Eva Revell and Margaret Cook. Miss Revell, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Herman Malwald, 701 Ninth avenue, will leave next week for her home in Sopchoppy, Fla.

Miller-Marcus.
Rev. J. C. Oranger at the parsonage of the First Baptist church yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock officiated at the marriage of Miss Bernice Marcus of Peoria and Ralph Miller of Moline, using the ring service. They were accompanied by Mrs. Lulu Miller, mother of the groom and Mrs. John Clark. Mr. Miller is a tool-maker and the couple will reside in Peoria.

Social Announcements.
The Vashit shrine No. 23, White Shrine of Jerusalem, will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at Masonic temple. Election and installation of officers will be held.

IS NOMINATED TO KNIGHTHOOD WON MANY YEARS AGO

Paris, Tuesday, Jan. 21.—Today's official Journal publishes a nomination to the knighthood to the legion of honor, which was won 43 years ago. The nomination says: "Mrs. Gustave Ehrhardt, for exceptional services in the siege of Strassburg. She conducted at the peril of her life on Sept. 17, 1870, through the German lines, as prefect Baschin from Bischwiller to Schiltigheim whence he was able to reach Strassburg which was invested."

WOMEN ASK PLACE.
Paris, Tuesday, Jan. 21.—Request that women be given a place in whatever bodies may be created for putting into effect the idea of a league of nations is made in a resolution presented to the peace conference by an organization of French women under the presidency of Madame Juliette Adam.

PEASANTS HIDING GRAIN IN GROUND FROM BOLSHIEVSKI

Warsaw, Monday, Jan. 20.—(By the Associated Press).—Ukrainian peasants are hiding grain from the Bolsheviks by burying it in pits. It is reported that large numbers of Germans remain in Kiev and other Ukrainian towns with no intention of leaving and it is reported that they have been given large sums to fight in Petlura's army, or in the ranks of the Bolsheviks. Kiev is being deserted by all foreigners. German diplomatic agents have issued warnings for all who are not natives to leave the country.

The cost of food at Kiev is almost as great as at Moscow. Bread being sold, is bad, butter costs 75 rubles a pound and eggs three rubles apiece. Clothing is so scarce that it is a common sight to see people robbed of their shoes on the street. Many German officers have been stripped stark naked by bands of street prowlers.

Fugitives who are able to get trains for Odessa are in danger of being robbed by bands which are holding up trains. If they leave toward Kovel they have to walk part of the way. Petlura, the peasant leader, is a Bolshevik but one who wishes to rule independent of Moscow. With the ending of the war, the return of many soldiers from the
